EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
HANJIN INTERMODAL AMERICA, INC.,

Plaintiff,

-against-

JINDO TRADING CORP. and TEA GOON CHI,

Defendants.

ORDER

10-CV-3145 (NGG) (CLP)

NICHOLAS G. GARAUFIS, United States District Judge.

On July 9, 2010, Plaintiff Hanjin Intermodal America, Inc. ("Hanjin") filed a Complaint against Defendants Jindo Trading Corp. ("Jindo") and Tea Goon Chi ("Chi") for breach of a freight-shipping contract. (Docket Entry # 1.) On August 23, 2010, Hanjin moved for default judgment against Jindo. (Docket Entry # 3.) On September 13, 2010 and October 18, 2010, the Clerk of Court entered notations of default against Jindo and Chi, respectively. (Docket Entries ## 6, 10.) On October 18, 2010, Hanjin moved for default judgment against Chi. (Docket Entry # 9.) Shortly afterwards, the court referred both of Hanjin's motions for default judgment to Magistrate Judge Pollak for report and recommendation, and a damages inquest if necessary. (Docket Entries ## 11, 12.) Judge Pollak issued her Report and Recommendation ("R&R") on January 24, 2011, and recommended granting Hanjin's motions for default judgment against both Jindo and Chi, and awarding Hanjin $153,892.76 for services rendered, $29,602.50 in prejudgment interest, and post-judgment interest under 28 U.S.C. § 1961. (Docket Entry # 23.)

No party has objected to Judge Pollak's R&R, and the time to do so has passed. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(2). Having reviewed Judge Pollak's thoroughly reasoned and meticulously calculated R&R, the court adopts it in its entirety. See Porter v. Potter, 219 F. App'x 112 (2d Cir.

2007). Accordingly, the court GRANTS Hanjin's motions for default judgment against both Jindo and Chi, jointly and severally, and awards Hanjin $153,892.76 for services rendered, $29,602.50 in prejudgment interest, and post-judgment interest under 28 U.S.C. § 1961.

SO ORDERED.
